Entered at the Post Office as second-class matter

MIDDLETOWN, APRIL 15, 1893.

IF cholera comes, the price of goats will go up. A German physician has discovered that the use of goat's milk is a protection against cholera.

POSTMASTER John Field, who for three and a half years has been postmaster of Philadelphia, resigned his office a few days ago. There are many who are anxious to fill the vacancy which his resignation makes.

THE owner of the Evening Journal wanted to be public printer, but it is evident his aspirations have been nipped in the bud judging from the manner in which he assails Senator Higgins' private secretary. Surely nothing else would cause him to vent his venom on Mr. Bach, whose influence has been used against the owner's appointment.

A STRIKE among the workmen on the World's Fair Building, occurred on Monday. As every effort is being made to push the great exposition to completion, the strike was very inopportune. The trouble was from the old feud between union and non-union men. The unionists tried to force the management to discharge all non unionists; and to this end about 4,000 quit work. But they soon saw their error and returned to their places again.

THE fact that there were carrier pigeons on the Naronic, although for some unexplained reason none of them have been seen, has given more importance to the idea that ships should have carrier pigeons on board. It is probable that the Naronic's pigeons went to the bottom with her. But in time of disaster it frequently is possible to send messages by these pigeons. The men who own vessels on the great lakes propose to adopt a carrier pigeon service. George W. Childs has presented a number of pigeons to the new cruiser, New York, so there will be other birds besides the American eagle connected with the navy.

THE Chinese exclusion bill, which was passed by Congress about a year ago, goes into effect May 1. It requires that every Chinese laborer, now a lawful resident of this country, shall be registered by a federal officer appointed to that service, and shall have his photograph left with the authorities; failure to comply with these requirements will subject the delinquents to expulsion. There is now but a short time remaining, and thus far but few have registered. And if all that are in San Francisco apply between now and May 1, the officer in charge would not be able to attend to them all, and the query is what will become of John Chinaman after his time has expired, and he has not met the requirements of the law. There is little likelihood that the threat to drive them out wholesale will be carried out.

THE scheme to have a grand military display at the world's fair has dwindled from Gen. Miles' chimerical but soldierly project to mobilize 100,000 regulars and militiamen at Chicago, down through the war department's plan to have eight or ten regiments on hand, until it is now certain that, beyond the garrison at Fort Sheridan, there will be no regulars in Chicago. So it happens that there will be more British soldiers at the fair than American. Three hundred picked men, representing every branch of the service, are now on their way to this country to show Americans how her majesty's troops look while on parade and in action. Inasmuch on our army is not of much importance as compared with those of Europe, perhaps it is just as well to let the distinctively military nations carry off the honors in that direction.

IN Kansas City 3,482 women were registered to vote at the election on Tuesday, and 8,286 men were registered. Yet the woman candidate for mayor of Kansas City received barely forty votes. This is the first time in the history of any state in the union when a large part of the women went to the polls and cast ballots. In eight of the cities of Kansas 15,888 women were registered. The women, however, seem to have preferred to vote for men rather than to place one of their sex in high official position. Mrs. Potter's candidacy for mayor of Kansas City must have been very humiliating to her. Perhaps she will conclude that it is better for a woman to attend to household matters than to try to become president. The natural interest women might take in good government is commendable, but the popular eye is not yet trained to look with pleasure upon the spectcle of a woman candidate for mayor. Perhaps the time will come when such things will be common.

THE Mormon temple is being dedicated at Salt Lake City. The dedicatory exercises will continue from day to day for about two weeks. Only members of the church can enter the temple. Four of the church authorities who took part in laying of the corner stones forty years ago now participate in the dedicatory ceremonies. The Mormon pioneers went to Utah in 1847. The building of the temple was begun in 1851. The design was formulated by Brigham Young. For the first twenty years the work proceeded very slowly so practically the structure has been built in the last twenty years. The temple is 186½ feet long and 99 feet wide. One of the towers is 210 feet high. An annex 60 by 100 feet in size is connected with the main temple by an underground passage. The temple is a marvel of elegance, finished at a time when the power of the Mormon Church is waning and when the most devout of the saints are seeking refuge in other lands.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has relented and will now give offices to Democratic editors. In fact he asserts that he never said he would not. The ground upon which it is said they were to be proscribed—that it would look like subsidizing the press—was not a tenable one at best, and would have caused no end of trouble for the administration. It may well be asked "who are better entitled to easy places on the pay roll than the faithful, hard working men who, during the last four years, have been sitting up all night sawing off the long columns of 'plate matter' sent out from Democratic reform headquarters?" Nobody, and to ask those who have performed these arduous duties to "stand up to the rack, fodder or no fodder" is more than mortal men—even editors—should be expected to do. Mr. Cleveland does well to relent, and we extend our congratulations to the entire Democratic editorial fraternity that they are to be "in it," and are to share the loaves and fishes resulting from a victory that would scarcely have been won without them.

DRESS REFORM is one of the subjects that the National Council of Women will discuss at their congress to be held at the World's Fair next month. This Council is composed of the representative women of America, including not only those known as reformers, but women of high culture, good sense and strong reason, who are trying to serve the best interests of the home and nation, and whether all their methods meet with general approval or not, they are certainly worthy of consideration. Interest in the subject of dress is not confined to women alone; certain legislators have devoted considerable thought to the subject, and recently several State legislatures have been appealed to, to protect society against certain feminine atrocities. And the question as to whether women might wear hoop-skirts was in several instances, submitted to the highest authority of the State. It is not surprising therefore, that this council of bright women, should in their deliberations, consider a subject of such general interest. Their aim is to introduce and popularize a style of dress adapted for business women, for house-work, shopping and all forms of exercise; a dress that shall combine beauty, simplicity and comfort. Necessarily it will differ very greatly from the Parisian styles, and if only the working women wear it, both costume and wearer would be uncomfortably conspicuous. But if the fashionables once don it, the Rubicon is safely crossed, and those who toil may dress for comfort and health without fear of ridicule. So this council which has among its members many fashionabl women, proposes to introduce a costume at the World's Fair, where there will be all manner and styles of dress, and new things can be safely tried. If the new costume is indeed a reform, and these women succeed in making it the fashion, they will deserve the gratitude of the multitudes who are unwilling slaves to fashion's vagaries. The new dress is nothing of a uniform, it bears no resemblance to the much condemned bloomer costume, but it is loose enough to allow free action of the body, and the skirt is short enough to avoid contact with the feet; and whatever may be said against it, it is free from the faults that are chargeable to the much maligned trains, hoops and "full dress" costumes. And though the reform may be slow in finding popular favor, the woman who have undertaken it, will not let it rest. The subject is one of very lively interest, for dress, especially among women, is a very momentous question and everybody knows that Fashion's decrees will do more to make or mar a style than all the laws of stern legislators.

PROTESTS.

Protests against the work of the legislature in reference to the collecting of the delinquent taxes in Kent and Sussex, and the Police Commissioners' bill of the city of Wilmington, have been presented at Dover. Able speakers denounced it from the platform, and now an able Democrat writes a letter to the Every Evening which we are confident cannot but strike favorably every honest and intelligent voter, regardless of party affiliations. Editorially commenting upon the writer, the Every Evening says:

"The writer doubtless has good and sufficient reasons for voicing his opinions over a nom de plume, but we can assure all who read his warning words of protest that he is what he signs himself, in all that the word implies. He is a democrat who knows why he is such, and can give good reasons for his political convictions. He is not an office-holder nor an office-seeker, and his interest in the matter is that of one who desires to see Democracy triumph because he believes the principles of Democracy are right, and who further desires to see the representatives of Democracy in the hall of legislation ever live up to and respect the principles that their party is organized to maintain."

If our Democratic Legislature can ever gain the respect of the people of this State, it will only be with the repeal of those ignominious measures which are so odious to the thinking and intellectual people of the State of Delaware.

FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT.

AN EARNEST PROTEST AGAINST PARTISAN LEGISLATION

By a Democrat—The Action is Held as a Blow at Self-Government, and an Infringement Upon the Rights of the people—Why it Should be Defeated.

To the Honorable members of the Delaware Legislature.—GENTLEMEN: There is in your possession a bill which will soon come up for your consideration and disposition. It is called the "Police Commission Bill," and seeks to displace the present Police Commission of Wilmington with three other gentlemen, removing the mayor of Wilmington from all participation in the city's affairs and placing the appointment of these commissioners ever afterward in the hands of the governor. About the gentlemen named in the bill I have nothing to say at this time, but as a citizen of a free commonwealth and as a Democrat, I do most emphatically protest against the monstrous proposition which you thus try to foist upon us under the plea of "party policy." I protest against the vicious principle which you would thus inculcate as Democratic doctrine.

His proposed measure violates all the rights which are a part of the inheritance handed down to us by our forefathers, who shed their blood when tyranny tried to wrest these same rights from them. It prevents the very fundamental principles of a government by the people, and usurps their rights. It prohibits the right of self-government and puts the people of Wilmington without their consent under an oligarchy which is as autocratic as the government of the czar of Russia.

Who are these self-constituted men who say that the people of Wilmington have fallen so low that they can no longer be trusted with the election of a single one of their officials?

Are Mr. Dickey, Mr. Neary and Mr. Callahan the depositories of the rights of the people of Wilmington.

The people have not asked for this measure and the people do not want it.

If the present Police Commission was conceived in sin and born in iniquity, who was responsible for it but Governor Reynolds and his henchman, Mr. Dicky? Granted that Police Commissioner Jester is a stench in the nostrils of decent people, was not Mr. Jester appointed by a Democratic governor, at the solicitation of a Democratic boss, to betray his fellow-Republicans for a mess of pottage? That he did not betray them was due to his own weak character.

Gentlemen, you have been elected by the people of Delaware to discharge a trust placed in your hands by them. It is the most solemn duty which you can exercise toward your follow man. In your hands lie their rights, their liberties. Fulfill your trust faithfully and you will be honored, and praised and trusted, as you should be. Betray that trust and you will as surely meet with the contempt of your fellowmen. There is a compensation in the affairs of merit just as surely as it exists in nature. Violate the laws of nature and the punishment is as certain as the fact that night follows day. Violate the principles of right, truth and justice in your dealings with your fellow man, and a compensating fate is sure to overtake you. Right, truth and justice are the trinity of virtues which are the very foundation of good government, and as far as you vary from these beacon lights in dealing with your fellow-men, just so far are you diverging from the very essence of our government.

In passing this proposed Police Commission bill, you are violating all three of these standards of public and private duty. You deny the right of the people to say who shall govern them; you falsely assert that the people are demanding a measure whose sole object is to further selfish and partisan ends; and you place in the hands of another the right of saying who shall minister our municipal affairs.

Is this right?
Is this justice?
Is this common sense?
Is this politics?

In your insane desire to please a certain class of your party associates, you propose to pass a law that strikes at the very root of self-government. As a law it is an outrage to our rights and a betrayal of the trust we have placed in your hands. As a political measure it is suicidal. If you should pass this measure you would but have to pass one more law giving the governor power to appoint the mayor of Wilmington and your contemplated action would be complete. Such will be the effect if this law is passed.

Gentlemen hesitate before you commit an irreparable blunder. You are standing on the edge of a precipice. Do not rush into it in your folly.

Be warned and awake from your nightmare. To trample beneath your feet the most sacred rights of the people is neither good common sense nor political wisdom. It is the madness of blind partisanship.

There never was truer political wisdom uttered than by Abraham Lincoln when he said: "You can fool all the people part of the time; you can fool part of the people all the time; but you cannot fool all the people all the time."

I demand of you as a citizen of Wilmington, and I implore you as a Democrat, to defeat this iniquitous measure. It violates all the principles for which Democracy stands and brands the citizens of Wilmington as unfit to govern themselves.

Cast aside your political bias and at the same time the men who have so blindly advised you to go on your path of destruction.

Exercise the divine right and trust which freemen have placed in your hands, to legislate for freemen. Betray not that trust, but show that you are fit men to legislate for a government of the people, for the people, and by the people.

Do right and you will wrong nobody, not even your party. Do wrong and a sure fact will overtake you and right the wrong. Do your duty without fear or favor and you will satisfy the people, your own conscience, and

Yours for good government
A DEMOCRAT.

WILMINGTON, April 11th, 1893.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, April 10th, 1893.—Mr. Cleveland is going to feed the Tammany tiger with official pap, and the promises he made to Murphy, Sheehan and Croker, at that memorable anti-election dinner in New York are to be kept. When Senator Murphy and Lieutenant Governor Sheehan called at the White House to arrange a date for agreeing upon the individuals who are to fill the offices allotted to Tammany some people were surprised, as they had taken up the idea that because the anti-snappers were being taken care of Tammany was to be snubbed. Not so. Hill is to be snubbed has already been unmercifully snubbed, in the distribution of Federal patronage in his state, outside of New York city, but the Tammany promises are to be lived up to, and this week Murphy and Sheehan are to meet Mr. Cleveland to arrange the slate. It is not surprising that Mr. Cleveland should have considered it necessary to go away for two or three days absolute rest before tackling this job.

That row between the President and the Senate may occur yet (although the impression is general that this will be the last week of the extra session), and without Senator Hill's assistance. The nomination of Mr. Eckels, of Ill., to be Comptroller of Currency was such a manifestly unfit one that it has been hung up by the Senate committee on Finance, and Mr. Cleveland has been requested by the Democratic members of that committee to withdraw it but up to this writing he has not done so, and his stubborness is so well known that it is hardly expected that he will. The Democratic Senators may back down, vote to reject or adopt the "sneak act" and adjourn without acting upon the nomination.

Attorney General Olney, although said to be a good lawyer, has none of the the tact in dealing with politicians which is so necessary for a member of the cabinet to have if he wishes to escape becoming unpopular. The most influential Democratic Senator or Representative is treated with the coldest and most indifferent courtesy if he calls on Mr. Olney without an endorsement, oral or written, from somebody fortunate enough to enjoy the priceless boon of his acquaintance. Naturally enough the Democrats do not like this sort of treatment. Within the memory of many men now in public life there was another Attorney General from Massacusetts—Mr. Hoar, who was in General Grant's cabinet—who had Mr. Olney's knact of offending his political callers by not treating them as they thought themselves entitled to be treated, and the result might be profitably studied by Mr. Olney. General Grant nominated Attorney General Hoar to a vacancy on the Supreme Court, and was greatly surprised when informed that he could take his choice between withdrawing the nomination or having it unanimously rejected. It was withdrawn.

After what has been said about Mr. Cleveland's intentions, by those near him, the appointment of Judge William Lochren, of Minnesota to be Commisioner of Pensions, was a very pleasant surprise to Republicans, who generally feared the selection of some man who had not been in the army at all. Judge Lochren was a brave soldier, and if he is allowed to have his way in conducting the business of the Pension Bureau, the interests of his soldier comrades will be safe. But, if some Democrats of influence know what they are talking about, he isn't to have his own way, but is merely to follow without the slightest deviation lines laid down by Mr. Cleveland for the government of that bureau. Well, we shall soon see, as he assumes office about the first of May.

As a press muzzler Postmaster General Bissell is not a shining success. His order against making public the changes in fourth-class postmasters was issued in the morning and suspended in the afternoon. Reason: a unanimous kick, from Democrats as well as from Republicans. He has another scheme however, by which he hopes to prevent the bad character of some of the applicants for appointments as fourth class postmasters becoming public until after their appointment. He requires every Senator and representative who endorses a candidate to promise that neither the name of their candidate nor of any other or others there may be shall be made public before their a pointment. This rule expedites appointments because it makes it impossible for citizens to protest against objectionable candidates, but it is bound to result in some very bad appointments.

The United States now has two full fledged ambassadors, Bayard to Great Britain, and Eustis to France, both of whom have been confirmed by the Senate.

THE WAY OF IT.

ELLA WHEELER WILCOX.

This is the way of it, wide world over;
One is beloved and one is the lover;
One gives and the other receives.
One lavishes all in a wild emotion,
One offers a smile for a life's devotion;
One hopes, and the other believes.
One lies awake in the night to weep.
And the other drifts into a sweet, sound sleep.

One soul is aflame with a god-like passion,
One plays with love in an idler's fashion;
One speaks, and the other hears.
One sobs "I love you," and wet eyes show it,
And one laughs lightly, and says, "I know it,"
With smiles for the others tears.
One lives for the other and nothing beside.
And the other remembers the world is wide.

This is the way of it, sad earth over;
The heart that breaks is the heart of the lover,
And the other learns to forget.
For what is the use of endless sorrow?
Though the sun goes down, it will rise to morrow
And life is not over yet.
Oh! I know this truth, if I know no other,
That Passionate Love is Pain's own mother.

A CORNER OF SMILES.

The milliner would soon be swamped if she didn't know how to trim her sales.—Elmira Gazette.

A Hard Corner.

The age of 30 is a hard corner for a woman to turn, and 35 is still harder. She feels that she is fast leaving her youth behind her. But there is no reason why a woman should be faded and passe at 35, or even at 45. The chief cause of the early fading of American women is found in the fact that many of them suffer from some form of female weakness or disease which robs the face of its bloom, draws dark circles about the eyes, brings early wrinkles and sallowness, and stamps the face and figure with signs of ill-health. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure all these troubles, will bring back the lost bloom, and remove the pains and ailments which make women grow old before their time. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case; or price ($1.00) refunded.

"Colonel, I hear you were a social lion at Washington?"

"Yes, sir! loaned three congressmen $10 apiece and got a chance to pay a Senators hotel bill."

Ladies who do "high housekeeping" will assuredly find a trusty friend in Salvation Oil, when they scald themselves by turning over a tea-kettle, or burn themselves by lifting a lid from a red-hotstove. For the cure of scalds burns and all kinds of abrasions it is the best liniment that has ever been originated. Price 25 cts.

How many things there are to laugh at in this world to the girl who has pretty teeth and dimples.—Siftings.

When a person takes a cold it is not infrequently accompanied by a cough. Constant coughing if not relieved at once by Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the ready cure for all such affections, will weaken the patient, intensify the irritation causing the cough, until headache and fever are developed, often ending in inflamation of the air-passages.

The long-winded story-teller seems to base his claims to reliability on the fact that he is never sharp in his accounts.—Washington Star.

The Spring

Of all seasons in the year, is the one for making radical changes in regard to health. During the winter, the system becomes to a certain extent clogged with waste, and the blood loaded with impurities, owing to lack of exercise, close confinement in poorly ventilated shops and homes, and other causes. This is the cause of the dull, sluggish, tired feeling so general at this season, one which must be overcome, or the health may be entirely broken down. Hood's Sarsaparilla has attained the greatest popularity all over the country as the favorite Spring Medicine. It expels the accumulation of impurities through the bowels, kidneys, liver, lungs and skin, gives to the blood the purity and quality necessary to good health and overcomes that tired feeling.

"Now; there's Mrs. Stronghold," growled young Hankinson. "She's always talking about her rights, and she doesn't even live up to her privileges."

"How so?"

"Why her husband has a razor and she never uses it. Got more beard than he has, too."—Chicago Tribune.

To Get at the Facts

Regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla, ask the people who take this medicine, or read the testimonials often published in this paper. They will certainly convince you that Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses unequalled merit, and that HOOD'S CURES.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

"Here's another blow at American agriculture," said the farmer when he saw a cyclone coming.—Kansas Farmer.

When you feel all tired out and broken up generally, you need a good tonic. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best. Try it.

American Home.

The Press has the best possible organization to secure news from the most important sources, and with nearly 400 correspondents in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, the State and near-at home news is covered with a routine carefulness and attention to detail not even attempted by any other paper.

The Press has also the best of correspondents in all the great cities of the United States, as well as financial and railroads experts in Chicago and the West, who keep the paper more than abreast with events.

The columns of the Sunday Press are enriched by contributions from those whose names are written high in our lists of great authors, novelists, essayists, as well as from men of high rank in public life. The best authors know that their best audiences are the readers of the Daily, Weekly and Sunday Press.

In politics The Press knows no other master than the people, and the past year has seen, as has been seen before, the marked fact that it is subservient to no political boss. It has no political ambitions to foster, but looks after the interests of its readers, and delivers itself upon the issues of the day in a manner both frank and fearless, letting the facts speak for themselves and evading no issues, but meeting them all on the basis of fair play to all men at all times. Its pages know no distinctions and the rights of one class over another are neither recognized nor supported.

Entirely New. Abreast of the Times. A Grand Educator.

The successor of the "Unabridged."

Ten years were spent revising, 100 editors employed, and over $300,000 expended before the first copy was printed.

Everybody should own this Dictionary. It answers quickly and correctly the questions so constantly arising concerning the history, spelling, pronunciation, and meaning of words.

A Library in Itself. It also gives in a form convenient for ready reference the facts often wanted concerning eminent persons, ancient and modern; noted fictitious persons and places; the countries, cities, towns, and natural features of the globe; translation of foreign quotations, words, phrases, and proverbs; etc., etc., etc.

This Work is Invaluable in the household, and to the teacher, scholar, professional man, and self-educator.

A saving of three cents per day for a year will provide more than enough money to purchase a copy of the International. Can you afford to be without it?

Fee $25; $5 down and $20 when mare is known to be with foal, with the usual privilege of return.

A beautifully proportioned dark bay, 16 hands high, weighing 13 lbs. With clean cut head, long curving neck, powerful and oblique shoulders, strong short back, long level quarters, and the best of legs and feet.

He is in short, a superior specimen of the old English breed of trotters, renowned for courage, docility and endurance to which imported Bellfounder, the sire of the dam of Hambletonian belonged.

The Norfolk Hero won first prize at the great Industrial and Agricultural Exhibition, Toronto, Canada, September, 1890. His sire, Uttag's Perfection, 543 (by Jackson's Perfection, 541), won twice at the Royal Agricultural Society's show in England. His dam is by "Sir Arthur" and second dam by Bedford Phenomenon 50 by Norfolk Phenomenon, 925.

The Bright and Genial Spring

Shuffle off the weighty overcoat Hang up the winter suit

Set your faces and your wishes to Spring Overcoats and Spring Suits.

The hands and the wit of our thousands of workers—cutters, helpers, sewers—have been gathering Spring goods into our house for many days. All ready now—we're glad to say.

Spring promises big for business. We've prepared big. The cloth buying amid the hum of mills, the quiet purchases from cloth makers who hunt us up, the making-up of one, two, five hundred suits at a stroke—interesting and perennially new as the story of how the wool off the sheep's back grows through a hundred processes into its perfect use is to your thoughtful mind—skip it all.

Don't skip this; you'll buy from the manufacturer direct or from a store that buys to sell again. Which will you do? Your dollars are at stake.

Will you buy your $10 suit from us?
Will you buy your $20 suit from us?
Will you buy your Spring overcoat from us?
Silk-lined or not, long or short—we have all.

We can save you 15 to 25 per cent., surely—perhaps more.

The goodness of the Clothing—that's another thing. Stores, like people, make their own reputations. After more than thirty years of selling reliable, all-wool clothing, under guarantee of standing by our goods, we'll not swap horses now. If you buy our clothing, you buy the best.

The prices are the lowest because we sell as well as make the goods. The money saving and the good wear go to you.

DELAWARE CITY.

DELAWARE CITY, April 11, 1893.—As James Bower Jr., was fishing on Monday morning last off Iron wharf, a short distance below this city, he found drifting southward with the tide a shad skiff, with oars, an elegant shad net, oilclothes and fishing outfits complete. No signs of any one having been thrown out or otherwise leaving the boat were visible, but every indication of arrangements having been made on Sunday evening for an early start fishing on Monday morning, and left the boat unsecured at some wharf, drifted away. It was not recognized by any of the watermen of this city. Considerable mystery surrounded the find until the next day, when it was claimed and satisfactorily proved by a man from Pennsville, N. J., and the supposition of its drifting away from the wharf verified. The man claiming it started immediately with her from here for the Jersey shore. When a short distance out from this shore the boat capsized and the lone inmate thrown into the water; he was, however, after a short struggle rescued by parties from this city. The boat righted and baled, when he again started for home, where he is now supposed to have arrived safely.

Miss Lucy Jackson, of Chester, Pa., is in town for a short stay.

Patrick Fosney has been quite ill with the typhoid fever but is now improving.

A load of bricks were put off here last week for J. R. Pennington's brick and lumber yard.

Mr. Simpson, the "Dry Dock Man," has permanently settled on his farm just across the canal from this town.

Mr. Harrington Clark was home Sunday last on a short visit to his relatives.

Mayor W.E. Reybold has had printed and posted a lot of bills warning all renters and property holders to have well cleaned on or before May 1st, all stables and out buildings, or they will be reported to the State board of health. This is a well advised measure taken against cholera, and the towns people readily recognizing this fact, are responding to the request. Mayor Reybold was lately re-elected Mayor for the ensuing two years.

No little opposition is being stirred up in this neighborhood against the government's placing a quarantine station either on Pea Patch or Reedy Island. Not that the people are so much afraid of the contagious diseases that will be in such close contact, although that is not such a pleasant thought—but the injury it will be to their main mode of a livelihood, the fishing industry. Reedy Island, the place seemingly chosen for this purpose is only a few hundred yards from Port Penn, 2 miles from Delaware City, 8 miles from New Castle and 14 from Wilmington—and yet, Hog Island was abandoned because it was too close to the city of Baltimore—just 70 miles. Again they argue, that it hardly seems fair that Delaware's citizens shouldsuffer for Pennsylvania's interest. A movement is on foot to try and prevent the establisnment of such a station on either of the two already mentioned islands.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stein, daughter of John Borger, of this place, died at her father's residence on April 4th, and was burried on the following Friday, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Shad are large but only a few are being caught. Herring are here in full force. Last Monday morning a haul of 35,000 was made in the locks. Shad are selling for $22 per hundred, while Herring bring from 25 to 70 cents per hundred, depending upon circumstances.

A very pleasant evening was spent in the parlors of Delaware City House on Monday evening by the young ladies and gentlemen who compose the broom drill ot the two evenings previous. A handsome 10 pound cake was presented to their drill master, and with this, some ice cream, dancing and games, the young people enjoyed their evenings outing.

The much talked of and worked for entertainment for the benefit of the School Encyclopaedia came off last Friday and Saturday evenings. The fair was a success from begining to end. Over $147 was made above every expense and everything was sold. This result was only brought about by the tireless efforts of the people who seemed to think there was no trouble too great, no work too hard, no expense too large for them to undertake. Particularly were some of the ladies untiring in their work, and the thanks of the entire town are due them for the success they have so nobly helped to work out for the towns school. There was over $50 worth of fancy articles sold, and this portion of the hall was very pretty. A gypsy fortune telling tent was in one corner and the charming gypsy, Miss Alice Clark, made many quarters by her magic art. The supper and ice cream were served down stairs in the first department. On Friday evening 16 of the Delaware College Cadets gave an exhibition drill, first upon the stage and afterwards a bayonet drill down in the body of the hall. The judges appointed to award the medal were Capt. W. E. Reybold, Prof A. H. Raub, ex-Captain of the College Cadets and Joseph B. Handy. The handsome silver medal went to corporal Kerr, of Newark. The boys did very well and were a credit both to themselves and the institution they represented. On the next evening the principal feature of the entire affair was enacted, a beautiful broom drill, consisting of 12 of the school girls and a burlesque broom drill by 10 of the boys. To say this drill was a thing of beauty, does not in the least flatter it. It was one of those happy combinations of girlhood in pictures of homologous colors shown to their best advantage. The boys drill was a good take off on the girls, and each boy carried out his part with no little success. The names of those who took part are as follows: Misses Mattie Price, Julia Bowen, Creton; Mary Morris and Stella Ferguson, blue; Julia Sadler and Bertha Edwards, yellow; Berenice Keane and Bertha Clark, pink; Bina Morris and Mary Reybold; nile green; Nora Foard and Nellie Vail, cream. The boys were W. Cairans, W. Swan, F. Tugend, F. Scott, C. Belville, H. Reybold, R. Davidson, H. Price, N. Cleaver, W. Clark.

TOWNSEND TOPICS.

A company of young folks serenaded Harry Willey and his young bride on Tuesday evening.

The 14-room dwelling together with some of the out buildings was burned on the farm of Thomas Lattomus, formerly known as the Collins farm, on Thursday, the 6th. The tenent Mr. Guesford lost part of his furniture and a large amount of meat.

John D. Stradley met with a painful accident on last Friday. While working on the road, his pick glanced and stuck in his right foot. He is unable to walk without crutches.

John Ingram, son of the late well known christian, Father Ingram, died at his residence near Union Church on Sunday morning. He was burried on Tuesday afternoon at Union Cemetery.

Miss Della Wilson, aged 16, died at her home on Main street on Saturday evening after a lingering illness with that dread disease consumption. Her funeral, which took place on Tuesday afternoon, was largely attended. Della was a very sweet girl and her many friends will miss her bright, patient face.

The sick roll of our town is unusually large at present. They are as follows: Mrs. Rettie Bates, on South street; John Garton, Roy Shockley and little Tom. Enos, on Main street; Mrs. Mary Townsend, on Walnut street and Edward Adams, colored, on South street.

The Epworth League will hold a public meeting on Friday evening. A literary and musical programme will be rendered.

J. S. Lattomus and wife attended the wedding of Miss Amanda Lattomus and Samuel Brockson, which took place on Wednesday evening.

THE PRESIDENT IN DELAWARE

He Spends Sunday With His Ambassador to England.

President Cleveland forsook the White House on Saturday last and in company with Secretary Gresham and Senator White, of Louisana enjoyed Delaware's hospitality at Delamore place, Wilmington, as the guest of Mr. Bayard.

It was an informal visit, and the President is said to have greatly enjoyed the quiet Sunday he spent in the Diamond State with his ex-Secretary.

He returned home on Monday morning.

Long and Terrible Illness from Blood Poisoning

Completely Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Piqua, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 5 years ago, and soon terrible ulcers broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. She weighed but 78 lbs., and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says: "I became perfectly cured by

NORFOLK HERO,

E. H. S. B. 515

Fee $25; $5 down and $20 when mare is known to be with foal, with the usual privilege of return.

A beautifully proportioned dark bay, 16 hands high, weighing 13 lbs. With clean cut head, long curving neck, powerful and oblique shoulders, strong short back, long level quarters, and the best of legs and feet.

He is in short, a superior specimen of the old English breed of trotters, renowned for courage, docility and endurance to which Imported Bellfounder, the sire of the dam of Hambletonian belonged.

The Norfolk Hero won first prize at the great Industrial and Agricultural Exhibition, Toronto, Canada, September, 1890. His sire, Utting's Perfection, 543 (by Jackson's Perf. ction, 541), won twice at the Royal Agricultural Society's show in England. His dam is by "Sir Arthur" and second dam by Bedford Phenomenon 50 by Norfolk Phenomenon, 923.

In Canada he left a uniformly fine lot of bay colts from mares of every color.
